DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the Appeal Brief filed on June 04, 2004.
2. In view of the Appeal Brief filed on June 04, 2004 and response to conference decision, PROSECUTION is hereby reopened.

Drawings

3. The drawings filed on July 12, 2000 are acceptable subject to correction of the informalities indicated on the attached "Notice of Draftperson's Patent Drawing Review," PTO-948. In order to avoid abandonment of this application, corrected formal drawing is required in reply to the Office action. The correction will not be held in abeyance.

Election/Restrictions

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a system for providing referential integrity for heterogeneous link, RDBMS providing referential integrity for homogenous links, software layer on top of the RDBMS for causing the RDBMS to provide referential integrity for heterogeneous link, the a software layer maintaining at least one data structure useful in ensuring referential integrity, which is maintaining database schema and database structure for referential integrity, classified in class 707, subclass 100.

- II. Claims 5-10, drawn to computer implemented method for preventing dangling points in heterogeneously scoped links, providing at least one heterogeneously scoped link (HSL) table in a non-RDBMS element communicating with at least one RDBMS, at least one table having a heterogeneously scoped link column, the HSL table being associated with the heterogeneously scoped link column, and accessing the HSL table to ensure referential integrity in an RDBMS, which is accessing database and database heterogeneously scoped link table (file) for referential integrity, classified in class 707, subclass 1.
- III. Claims 11-14, drawn to computer program product for ensuring referential integrity in an RDBMS having at least one table with at least one column of heterogeneously scoped links, computer readable code means for maintaining a table in a software layer not part of the RDBMS, and computer readable code means for using the table to ensure that operations on tuples in the RDBMS do not result in a heterogeneously scoped link pointing to no tuple, which is generating database and database structure for heterogeneously scoped link pointing to no tuple, classified in class 707, subclass 102.

5. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instance case, invention I can be used for providing referential integrity for heterogeneous link, RDBMS providing referential integrity for homogenous links, software layer on top of the RDBMS for causing the RDBMS to provide referential integrity for heterogeneous link, the a software layer maintaining at least one data structure useful in ensuring referential integrity, which is maintaining database schema and database structure for referential integrity. Invention II can be used for preventing dangling points in heterogeneously scoped links, providing at least one heterogeneously scoped link (HSL) table in a non-RDBMS element communicating with at least one RDBMS, at least one table having a heterogeneously scoped link column, the HSL table being associated with the heterogeneously scoped link column, and accessing the HSL table to ensure referential integrity in an RDBMS, which is accessing database and database heterogeneously scoped link table (file) for referential integrity. Invention III can be used for ensuring referential integrity in an RDBMS having at least one table with at least one column of heterogeneously scoped links, computer readable code means for maintaining a table in a software layer not part of the RDBMS, and computer readable code means for using the table to ensure that operations on tuples in the RDBMS do not result in a heterogeneously scoped link pointing to no tuple, which is generating database and database structure for heterogeneously scoped link pointing to no tuple. See MPEP 806.05(d).

6. Because these inventions are distinct for reasons given above and have acquired separate status in the art as shown their different classification, restriction for examination purpose as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I, II are not required for Group III each other, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even through the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicants is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to be non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48 (b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48 (b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17 (i).
